

FREE PUBLIC LECTURE

Wednesday, July 30, 7:00 -9:00 p.m.

Hawai'i Convention Center Lili'u Theater (Room 310)
1801 Kalakaua Avenue, Honolulu

Dr. Sylvia Earle  Nainoa Thompson

In celebration of Hawai'i Conservation Week, the Hawai'i Conservation Alliance Foundation is proud to sponsor a free public seminar featuring Dr. Sylvia Earle, internationally-acclaimed oceanographer and deep sea explorer, and master navigator Nainoa Thompson, Chairperson of the Polynesian Voyaging Society. Come hear how their ocean journeys tie into this year's Hawai'i Conservation Conference theme of Island Ecosystems: The Year of the Reef.

For more information about this and other Hawai'i Conservation Week events go to <http://hawaiiconservation.org/2008cw.asp>